I. DUAL PURPOSES OF THIS MAP

The purpose of this Map is to show to the land owner, the visitor, and the inquirer, a complete, clear, and concise picture of all the trails and points of interest in the area. It is hoped that this Map will be found to be the best method of showing the area to the out-of-town visitor. It is also hoped that this Map will be used by the residents of the area to show them the potential of their own backyard.

While the California and Oregon trails and the Mexican emigrant routes altered in their early stages, the Gila Trail continued to follow without change from the 1820's to the 1850's. The Gila Trail was the principal route from the South, Southwest and most of Mexico to the North. It crossed the Gila River which was a source of water and food for emigrants who traveled down from Mexico. The Gila Trail reached the Gila near the south of the South, and the Gila River served as a source of food and water. The Gila River was a major water source that provided emigrants with water and food. The Gila Trail crossed the Gila River near the south of the South, and the Gila River served as a source of food and water. (I). THE CHEROKEE TRAIL — 1828-1860

The western route of the South mountain railroad began in 1827 and was completed by 1832. The line ran from Tennessee to Alabama, including parts of Kentucky, Tennessee, Mississippi, and Alabama. The route was named after the Cherokee Indians, who lived in the region and faced displacement due to the removal from their land. The trail was later used by the Union Army during the Civil War. A monument was dedicated to the memory of the Indian Removal Act by the Cherokee Nation in 2001.

(J). THE ROUTE OF FR. FRANCISCO ESCALANTE AND FR. FRANCISCO DOMINGUEZ — 1776-1848

The Old Spanish Trail received its name from the first time that it was used by the expedition of the Spanish explorer, Father Francisco Garces, who was sent by King Carlos III of Spain to explore the western territories of the New World. Garces was the first person known to have crossed what is now Utah. Garces and his party traveled through what is now the heart of Utah, including the Wasatch Mountains. The trail was later used by many ranchers and traders, including those from Santa Fe, New Mexico, to travel to Salt Lake City. The trail was also used by the early Mormon settlers who traveled to Utah.
