WELCOME To The Battle of Plattsburgh Historic Trail. This outdoor trail in upstate New York on the scenic shore of Lake Champlain with rolling hills, and bordering the Adirondack Park, marks the turning point in the War of 1812, and the last engagement between natives of English speaking nations. The trail is over City of Plattsburgh Streets. All along the trail route are 33 Historic Trail Markers. By retracing the historic footsteps of the Battle of Plattsburgh, it is hoped that you will have a physical and a spiritual kinship with the War of 1812 soldier.
